172 Attorney Street, NYC.

Installation view, Takashi Kunitani: Pink Objects at Ulterior Gallery, New York.

Takashi Kunitani's Pink Objects, on view at Ulterior Gallery, invites viewers literally to look at the world from a new perspective – his neon works, lying facedown on glass shelves, are viewable only from crouching below the level of the works. This method offers a unique viewing experience, as well as a tie-in to the pornographic origins of the phrases utilized in the work.

Selection of the shows by Jamie Martinez (Publisher) and Jennifer Wolf.
